INTRODUCTION

Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color or national origin under any program or activity receiving Federal Financial Assistance (FFA). Title VI compliance requirements apply to any county department, agency or sub-recipient that receives FFA.

The Office of the County Auditor conducted a site review of the Fulton County Juvenile Court on June 14, 2019 with Kyle Coffey, Grants Administrator. The site review addressed the Title VI compliance requirements for the Criminal Justice Coordinating Council (CJCC) for the period of June 15, 2016 – May 31, 2019 in the total amount of $30,000.00.

BACKGROUND

Juvenile Court serves the residents of Fulton County by hearing all cases involving allegations of dependency of children under the age of 18, children in need of services (CHINS) under the age of 18, and delinquency and traffic violations concerning children under the age of 17. The court is organized by Title 15, Chapter 11 of the Official Code of Georgia. Fulton County Juvenile Court is the largest juvenile court in Georgia and amongst the largest in the Southeastern United States.

The mission of Fulton County Juvenile Court is first, to protect children and the community in matters brought before the court, to rehabilitate children, and to restore families; and second, to create opportunities for the community, partners, and stakeholders to actively engage in this mission.

OBJECTIVES

The Office of the County Auditor has the responsibility of conducting Title VI Compliance Site Reviews of Federal financial assisted recipients and sub-recipients to determine whether they are honoring their commitments, as represented by certification, to comply with the Title VI/Non-discrimination Civil Rights requirements.

The primary objective of the site review was to determine if the Fulton County Juvenile Court has met its General Reporting and Program-Specific contractual requirements of the state, federal and county laws, policies, rules and regulations relating to Title VI. In addition, requirements and guidance measures of Limited English Proficiency (LEP) for program recipients, sub-recipients and contractors were discussed.

The secondary objective of the Title VI Compliance Site Review was to provide technical assistance in the form of training and to make recommendations regarding corrective actions as deemed necessary and appropriate.

METHODOLOGY

An initial email was sent to Omotayo Alli, Chief Administrative Officer, providing notification of the site review. In addition, an email was sent to Shariff Jones, Supervising Attorney, providing an electronic copy of the Title VI Compliance Site Review Tool used to conduct the monitoring. The tool provided a preview of compliance areas that would be assessed.

The review tool was utilized to assess the various areas of the Agency’s Title VI requirements as well as gather information relating to Title VI specialty areas (Public Participation/Outreach and Service Recipient Demographics (when applicable)).

In addition, the recipient’s Title VI Liaison was provided Title VI Basics and Compliance Training and law updates (if applicable) during the site review. This training assists with the efforts of understanding, obtaining and maintaining continuous non-discrimination compliance.

REQUIREMENTS, FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

Findings

No findings of Title VI deficiencies.

CONCLUSION

The Fulton County Juvenile Court demonstrated Title VI compliance as required. The recipient displayed proper Title VI signage in appropriate places, providing Title VI awareness to citizens and employees. Also, the recipient provided a copy of the mandatory assurances/awarded contract agreement signed off by the Chairman of the Board of Commissioners.

The department has adopted the Fulton County’s Title VI complaint process; however, a recommendation was made to provide Fulton’s complaint process information via signage postings throughout the department’s common areas (public waiting areas, reception areas, break rooms and copy areas) and the court’s website.

The Fulton County Juvenile Court also provides public notification of rights and accessibility of Title VI. In addition, the recipient ensures LEP compliance through the use of vital documents and interpretation and translation services through the use of the County’s Foreign Language Line service, when needed and bi-lingual staff at no additional cost to clients. The office also has “I Speak” poster placed at the front receptionist’s window and lobby areas.

The department is compliant with Title VI Civil Rights policies, regulations, procedures and contract agreements. The compliance site review demonstrated that the Fulton County Juvenile Court is thorough in complying with Title VI requirements of the U.S. Department of Justice (USDOJ).

The Office of the County Auditor has worked diligently to develop Title VI/Non-discrimination guidelines, policies, tools and training as well as provide technical assistance to Fulton County federal recipient programs and its sub-recipients. We will continue to ensure that each department and agency promotes and implements proper measures to meet and maintain compliance with Title VI requirements, policies and procedures.
