Questions and Answers

Question 1: Is the facility while ran under the professional guidelines of Fulton County is the facility named as follows " Fulton County Adult Day Health Services and Youth Services Department" or is it carrying the name of the Professional Service Provider Corporate name and Logo.

Answer: The services will be provided at the proposers facility and will carry the provider's name. We will simply be sending you referrals for service provision at your facility.

Question 2: In the last several pages of the RFP it refers to a Consultants Fee in excess of 100.000 Dollars please advise to if this reflects something outside the scope of the RFP or other than what the actual Professional Service Provider is billing for contractually.

Answer: I cannot find the reference to a Consultants Fee in excess of $100,000. If you can be more specific, I would be glad to address.

Question 3: If the Proposer has a Special & Unique situation to offer Fulton County however staying within the Scope of the RFP and possible exceeding the services by far expectation is there any reason this Proposer could not make a submission on the 19th of November 2015.

Answer: The Request for Proposals process allows for proposers to offer additional services and innovative ideas for service provision, as long as the conditions set forth in the Scope of Work are met. Yes, please submit your proposal.
